

Clinical Photography in Dentistry

- Online course

Dr. Matrishva Vyas

Consultant Orthodontist, Nagpur.

What you will learn ?

- # What photographic gears you will need for clinical photography.
- # How to take scientifically correct photographs and become confident in taking diagnostically useful photographs.
- # How to share photographs with patients and grow your practice.
- # Take photograph with minimal discomfort to the patient and less chair time.
- # How to edit clinical photograph in Quick time and prepare them for presentations and Journal submission.

What are the requirements for the course?

- # You must have a basic DSR camera.
- # Micro / Macro lens and Ring flash is optional but highly recommended.
- # However, you do not need any previous experience in shooting photograph.

For whom this course is ideally suited?

- # Clinicians of all skill level who wants to shoot better clinical photographs and want to boost their practice using this visual medium.
- # Students and interns who wish to take scientifically correct photographs and wish to use them for exam, presentation, and publication.

Medium of the course:

This is an online course conducted through Microsoft Teams software.

It will comprise of 10 -12 module with each module of around 60 minutes.

What topics shall be covered?

- # Equipment selection.
- # Understanding the camera system.
- # Adjusting the camera for specific clinical requirement.
- # Science of Exposure.
- # Art of Composition.
- # Facial, Intra-oral, table-top, and photographing a radiograph.
- # How to process the images for presentation and submission.
- # How to take care of the camera equipment.

At the end of course a certificate will be issued online.

Fees: Rs. 700/- for students.

Rs. 1500/- for clinicians/ academicians.

You can know about Dr. Matrishva Vyas by clicking on <https://matrishva.com>